

Parent/Guardian Request For Student Absence

School Year: _____

School officials realize that business and personal interests sometimes require families to be away from home for short periods of time. When a parent or guardian believes that there is a valid reason for a student to be absent, school officials will endeavor to honor the absence. Such absences, when approved, will be considered excused absences. Depending upon the course, students may be expected to make up time and/or work missed because of such absences.
